

THE ARC OF HISTORY

8,000 years in three chapters.

ANCIENT WORLD

The birthplace of winemaking — mainly the Caucasus and Levant, including Georgia, Lebanon, and neighboring lands. Home to some of the oldest grape varieties still thriving today.

OLD WORLD

Regions that later adopted winemaking, mostly in antiquity. Techniques refined and traditions codified over millennia. Primarily Southern Europe, parts of Central Europe, and North Africa.

NEW WORLD

The third wave of winemaking — regions adapting the craft to new climates and frontiers. Examples include the Americas, Australia, Northern Europe, and South Africa.
